

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2199 - SB 2455

January 28, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Specifies that a measure to sell county-owned assets of real property or improvements thereon is not properly before the county legislative body unless public notice has been given in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least one week prior to the meeting where such measure is to be considered.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes local governments will experience an increase in expenditures for the cost of providing the required notice in a newspaper. This increase is estimated to be not significant.
